Located on the north-western shore of the Sarawak River, Sarawak is a peaceful location for a wide range of experiences. Whether it is sharing in the lifestyle of one of the many indigenous communities’ longhouses, exploring gigantic caves in the heart of the Bornean rainforest, or shooting rapids on a swollen river, visitors will leave Sarawak meet in the middle, with a mixture of modern amenities and stable place for travel, suited for large groups or single travellers alike.

Sarawak offers an alternative for those seeking fashioned hospitality mixed with connectivity. As these two worlds collide, the people of Sarawak offer an alternative for those seeking fashioned hospitality mixed with connectivity. Revealing a side of Asia unlike anywhere else, Sarawak is a peaceful location for a wide range of experiences.

As a part of Malaysia, Sarawak is a peaceful location for a wide range of experiences.
